Re-opening Joseph Von Savage Memorial Pool

Adult Fitness and Lap Swim:

Lane 1 (closest to the bleachers) = 3 specific exercise areas, one deep water and two in the 4-foot section all 6 ft apart = 3 per lane.

Lane 2 one walker in the shallow end to mid-point and 1 deep water enthusiast = 2 per lane.

The remaining lanes (3/4/5/6) have 1 lap swimmer per lane = 4 swimmer total.

This totals 9 people in the pool plus 2 or 3 staff on duty.

During Open Swim:

Reservations only and pool shall have 2 lanes in, and pool divided into 3 sections.

One family per section up to 5 people in the family. If no reservations the open lane can be utilized for laps or exercise.

Up to 18 people in the pool but lap lanes swimming only 1 per lane.

Swim Lessons:

One Parent/Adult in with each child.

We will have 6 children per lesson equaling 12 people with one instructor.

Group Lessons:

Two group totaling up to 24 or one group and 1 private. The pool will be divided in half.

Social distancing must be maintained. Keep under 25 people in the building.

We will have an OUTDOOR staging area.

Swimmers will enter through the front door but enter the pool deck using the vending room and exit through the front door.

First time swimming after we reopen everyone must fill out the COVID-19 Hold Harmless Wavier.

They will be assigned their spot by the Gate Attendant/Lifeguard 1.

Locker rooms will remain closed, but bathroom toilets will be available for use – no showering.

All swimmers MUST come prepared to swim and leave immediately after swimming. NO changing in the locker rooms.
