Fireworks, live music, family entertainment highlight Wildwood Crest Seafarers Celebration Sept. 22

WILDWOOD CREST – Spectacular beachfront fireworks, a wide variety of terrific live music, enjoyable family entertainment and much more will highlight the FREE Wildwood Crest Seafarers Celebration scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 22, from 9 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

The Seafarers Celebration begins at 9 a.m. with a massive street festival along the beautiful banks of Sunset Lake, located along New Jersey Avenue between Rambler Road and Miami Avenue. The event will feature scores of craft vendors, live music, delicious varieties of food and other FREE fun entertainment for the entire family.

Live music includes performances by the Legacy Band (dance and party favorites), Big Bleu (oldies, Motown, rock & pop) and the Star Band (Motown, Doo Wop, pop hits). (See below for the specific live music schedule.)

A performance by the Vahalla Pirates, magic shows, a live turtle exhibition, interactive games for children, roving street performers, children's pie-eating contests, bounce houses, face painting and more also highlight Saturday's Seafarers daytime activities lineup.

The daytime portion of the Seafarers Celebration at Sunset Lake concludes at 5 p.m.

The action then moves to Centennial Park, located at Fern Road and Ocean Avenue. Big City, featuring everything from oldies, Motown and disco to '80s pop and R&B to modern dance and rock hits, will perform on the Centennial Park stage at 7:30 p.m. The annual Seafarers beachfront fireworks show will go off from the beach directly behind the Centennial Park stage at 9 p.m. to conclude the day's activities.
