Wildwood Crest to formally dedicate Alameno Park Sept. 24

WILDWOOD CREST – The Borough of Wildwood Crest will formally dedicate a small park at Miami and New Jersey avenues to the memory of Wildwood Crest native Andrew Alameno in a ceremony on Saturday, Sept. 24, at 4 p.m.

The park dedication was originally scheduled to occur during the borough's annual 9/11 remembrance ceremony, but the event was canceled by rain.

Alameno, born and raised in Wildwood Crest and a former lifeguard for the Wildwood Crest Beach Patrol, passed away at the World Trade Center in New York City during the terrorist attacks on Sept. 11, 2001.

Members of the Alameno family, borough officials and other community leaders are expected to attend the ceremony on Sept. 24. The public is welcome and encouraged to attend as well.
