Easter Bunny to pay visit to Wildwood Crest Wednesday

WILDWOOD CREST – The Easter Bunny is coming to Wildwood Crest.

The Easter Bunny will ride through the borough Wednesday, April 8, beginning at 3 p.m. to greet and wave to children from the street. He'll be accompanied by the Wildwood Crest Recreation Department, Volunteer Fire Department and Police Department.

Parents are encouraged to leave treats on their properties for their children to retrieve after the Easter Bunny passes. Parents are advised to keep their children on their properties. The Easter Bunny will remain in the street as he passes.

The Easter Bunny will begin his journey through the streets of Wildwood Crest on Jefferson Avenue and will travel north through the borough to Cresse Avenue.

For further information, contact the Wildwood Crest Recreation Department at (609) 523-0202.
