Wildwood Crest to host new social program for seniors

The Borough of Wildwood Crest Recreation Department and the Wildwood Crest Mayor's Wellness Campaign are set to begin the new Senior Social Recreation program at the Crest Pier Recreation Center.

The program, which will be held each Thursday from noon to 1:30 p.m. beginning Feb. 12, is open to older adults at no cost. Senior Social Recreation activities include walking, pickleball, ping pong, billiards, volleyball, frisbee, board games, cards, basketball and more.

The program is designed for seniors to come together to socialize with others while participating in a variety of recreation and wellness activities.

No registration is necessary.
