Wildwood Crest seeks volunteer for tourism commission

The Borough of Wildwood Crest seeks a volunteer to serve on its Tourism Development Commission.

The Wildwood Crest Tourism Development Commission is tasked with promoting, enhancing and advertising for tourism-related activities and special events in the borough. The commission meets eight times per year at the Crest Pier Recreation Center.

Interested candidates should submit a letter of interest via email to Wildwood Crest borough clerk Patricia Feketics at pfeketics@wildwoodcrest.org. Candidates are required to possess a current Wildwood Crest mercantile license or, if a license is issued in the name of a corporation or partnership, serve as its representative.

For further information, call (609) 523-0202.
